THE

ORIENTAL HERALD,

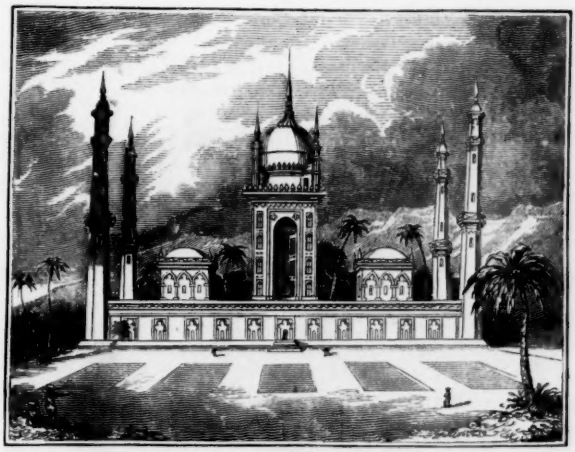
AND JOURNAL OF

GENERAL LITERATURE.

VOL. XVI.

JANUARY TO MARCH,

1828.



London:

PRINTED FOR THE PROPRIETORS, AND SOLD BY ALL BOOKSELLERS.

MDCCCXXVIII.

DS401
06

PRINTED BY W. LEWER, 147, STRAND.

26

Oct 7
462292
86

K

THE ORIENTAL HERALD.

No. XLIX.

		Page.
1.	Claim of the East India Company to the Right of Imposing Taxes without Limitation	1
2.	Navarino	15
3.	Sir Edward East's suggested Reforms in India	17
4.	Spanish Serenade	32
5.	The War in Greece	33
6.	To Enthusiasm	63
7.	Origin, History, and the Present State of the Censorship of the Press in India	65
8.	For Ever Thine	80
9.	On the Poems attributed to Homer	81
10.	Ancient Song of Victory	96
11.	Journey from Madras to Bombay	97
12.	The Voice of Home	101
13.	Doctrine of Summary Commitment, for Constructive Contempts of Parliament and Courts of Justice	103
14.	Declining Attachment and Fidelity of the Bengal Army	113
15.	To a Lady Singing	119
16.	Recollections of Colombia in 1812	120
17.	Stanzas	125
18.	Free Trade to the East	126
19.	Emigration, and the East India Company's Monopoly	129
20.	Introduction of Trial by Jury, and Abolition of Slavery, by Sir Alexander Johnston, in Ceylon	131
21.	Services of King's and Company's Troops at the Siege of Bhurtpore	137
22.	Determination of the Dimensions of the Ancient Egyptian Cubit	142
23.	Letter of General News from Madras	143
24.	Proposed Improvement in the East India Company's Army	145
25.	Efforts making in Bengal to resist the Arbitrary Taxation of the East India Company	147
26.	General Summary of the Latest Intelligence connected with the Eastern World	160
27.	Account of the War in the Punjab	160
28.	Insurrection in Chinese Tartary	161
29.	Reported New Government in Upper and Central India	164
30.	State of our Newly-Acquired Territory in Arracan	169
31.	Progress of the Governor-General in his Tour through India	171
32.	Discontinuance of 'The Shems al Akhbar,' a Native Newspaper	175
33.	Monument to the Marquis of Hastings at Calcutta	180
34.	Shipwreck of the John on her entry into the River Hooghley	184
35.	Curious Parsee Document	192
36.	Debate at the East India House	194
37.	Civil and Military Intelligence	204
38.	Births, Marriages, and Deaths	211
39.	Shipping Intelligence	214
40.	Postscript—Suppression of another English Newspaper in India	215

JANUARY, 1828.

THE ORIENTAL HERALD.

No. L.

	Page.
1. An Appeal to England against the New Stamp Act	219
2. O'Kavanagh	234
3. Journal of the English Expedition from India to Egypt	235
4. The Captive to his Harp	248
5. Spanish America	249
6. Sir Edward East's suggested Reforms in India	255
7. The African Association and Ledyard the Traveller	261
8. Progress of Medical Reform in England	266
9. Despotism	279
10. Letters from the East	281
11. State of Algiers	289
12. History and Present State of the Censorship in India	297
13. The Lover to a condoling Friend	307
14. Journey from Madras to Bombay	309
15. Doctrine of Summary Commitments for Constructive Contempts of Parliament and Courts of Justice	315
16. To the Morning Star	332
17. Journal kept at Bangkok	333
18. Lines addressed to Thomas Moore on his visiting Ireland	340
19. Impolicy of Slavery—East and West India Privileges	341
20. Injustice to the Madras Army—Fees for Commission thrice paid	350
21. Plan for Translating Oriental Works	353
22. Apprehended Danger of a Free Press in India	360
23. A Call to the Court of Directors	365
24. Treaty with Siam	369
25. Amherst Harbour	373
26. General Letter of News from Bengal	376
27. Character of Sir Thomas Munro, by an Indian Correspondent	380
28. General Letter of News from Madras	382
29. Mr. Cutlar Ferguson	386
30. An Evening Walk in Bengal, by Bishop Heber	387
31. Postscript	390
32. Civil and Military Appointments, Promotions, and Changes in India	391
33. Births, Marriages, and Deaths	395
34. Shipping Intelligence	397

FEBRUARY, 1828.

THE ORIENTAL HERALD.

No. LI.

	Page
1. Evils resulting to Great Britain from the East India Company's Monopoly	401
2. Statue to the memory of the late Stephen Babington	416
3. Letter of Mr. Babington's Successor	417
4. Woman's Friendship	419
5. Inquiry into the Right or Justice of the Punishment of Death	421
6. Kindred Minds	429
7. Sir Edward East's suggested Reforms in India	431
8. Lines to R. J. W. M.	439
9. Travels in Italy.—No. I.	441
10. The Censorship of the Press in India	447
11. Numa Pompilius and Egeria	457
12. Journey from Madras to Bombay.—No. 8.	460
13. The Death-charge of Mahonnal	464
14. Chinese Drama	467
15. Junius Brutus	468
16. Expedition from India to Egypt	469
17. Bishop Heber to his Wife	486
18. Summary Commitment for Constructive Contempts of Parliament, &c.	487
19. The Missioner	493
20. Recent Travels in the Cyrenaica	494
21. The Snow-Drop	502
22. Judgment of the King's Judges at Calcutta on Registering the Indian Stamp Act	503
23. Lines addressed to a Young Lady	534
24. Mexico, or New Spain	535
25. Classification of the Languages of Asia	541
26. Medal to the Troops who served in Ava	545
27. Trial of Captain Dillon	547
28. Lines on the Death of Mr. Canning	554
29. Suppression of the Prince of Wales' Island Gazette	555
30. General News from Madras, Letter I.	556
31. ——————— Letter II.	559
32. ——————— Letter III.	564
33. General News from Bengal	565
34. Appeal to the Editor from an unknown Correspondent at Bombay, with Notes by the Editor	569
35. Civil and Military Appointments, Promotions, and Changes in India	583
36. Births, Marriages, and Deaths	593
37. Shipping Intelligence;—Arrivals from Eastern Ports;—Arrivals in Eastern Ports;—and Departures from Europe	596
38. General List of Passengers	597
39. Notices to Correspondents	598

MARCH, 1828.